JAIL DELIVERY AT DALLAS

M'KNIGHT, ALLEGED MURDERER, MAKES GOOD HIS BOAST.

Five Prisoners Overpower Guard at City Jail and Escape—One Captured.

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 14.—James McKnight, negro charged with killing his mother-in-law near the cotton mill several years ago, carried out his boast that he would escape from the custody of the law when he and four other prisoners escaped from the city jail this morning after overpowering guard William. The plan was conceived last night after McKnight had, with a shoe spring, tied in two a chain and padlock placed around his neck. Charles Crook, Will Burton, Maryland Connor and Will Smith accompanied McKnight in the flight down the stairs from the second story of the jail building thence over the back fence and across a vacant lot in the rear of the jail. A trusty notified the city officers of this, and although an automobile was pressed into service, the fleeing prisoners succeeded in evading capture.

Will Smith, one of the negroes, was recaptured this afternoon. The four other prisoners are believed to be somewhere in Progress. Officers are now searching every house in that section.

EUROPE IS NOT IN LINE

CONTINENTAL BANKERS CAN'T ACCEPT BILL LADING PLAN.

American Bankers Will Have to Adopt New and More Comprehensive Proposition.

London, Sept. 14.—At today's conference of European bankers interested in the cotton trade it was decided that they will be unable to accept the validation plan submitted by the American Bankers' association. The decision was reached after a prolonged discussion by representative bankers of England and the continent.

ANNIVERSARY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Brantthoff Entertained the Five Hundred Club.

A most enjoyable affair was the entertainment last night of the Five Hundred Club by Mr. and Mrs. Brantthoff at their elegant home, 50 North Walnut street. The occasion was the twenty-ninth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Brantthoff, and the score cards contained the years, "1881-1910, Sept. 14." The gracious parlors were light and perfumed with flowers placed in vases all around.

The name of Five Hundred was played with spirit and on conclusion Mrs. Brantthoff had high score for the ladies and was presented with a pair of fine black silk hose. A. A. Shelton had high score of the gentlemen and was given a handsome pair of black silk socks.

Delicious refreshments were served of pepper and tomato salad on lettuce leaf, sliced turkey, olives, sandwiches, iced tea, apricot ice cream and angel food cake.

The guests in departing wished Mr. and Mrs. Brantthoff many returns of the day and promised that the Five Hundred club will help celebrate them.

AN ELKS HOME.

This Strong Order is Well Able to Erect a Building.

The Masons are nearing the completion of their magnificent new Temple, and the Knights of Pythias have begun work on their handsome new lodge building. The Woodmen have been considering the erection of a hall since the Herald suggested it recently, and will probably take some action on the matter soon. The Herald now suggests that the Order of Elks, which now has a strong lodge here composed of many of the best citizens, could build a handsome home for their order, and thus not only add to their own comfort, but also to the growth and appearance of the city.

A very large proportion of traveling men belong to the Elks, and if there was an elegant home of the order here, that fact would be advertised abroad by every visiting Elk, and perhaps nothing would help the reputation of Greenville in the land more than a fine building by the Elks, taken in connection with the splendid buildings already being built and in contemplation.

The Odd Fellows are contemplating either a new building or a rebuilding and beautifying of their present building so that if all the orders erect their own lodge rooms, Greenville will soon be known as a progressive city. Every visitor of any of the orders leaves here an advertiser of the city as far as regards its special order. This hint is thrown out for the Elks to consider.

When your watch stops think of me and then bring it around. I do good, honest work at prices all can afford.

PUTS IT UP TO GOVERNOR.

Attorney General Will Not Say When Prison Reform Bill is Effective.

Austin, Sept. 14.—Attorney General Lightfoot puts it up to Governor Campbell whether he shall name the penitentiary commission under the bill just passed by the legislature. Mr. Lightfoot today announced that he will give no ruling as to when the bill becomes effective and it is taken to indicate here that the bill becomes effective in sixty days. The governor today refused to discuss the bill except he invited the questioners' attention to the constitution. He has not yet signed the bill and it is the only measure remaining to be signed.

STAND-PAT MEN BEATEN

POINDEXTER CAPTURES SENATE NOMINATION IN WASHINGTON

Progressive Republican Captures Every County in the State.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 14.—In the insurgent storm that swept over the state of Washington yesterday, the old guard of Republican party lost everything. PoinDEXTER, an insurgent leader in the present house, was nominated for United States senator by a large plurality, carrying every county in the state.

Two, probably three, insurgents were nominated for congress. In the first congressional district, Humphrey (regular Republican) received a plurality as the first choice of the voters and is probably nominated. In the second, or Tacoma district, Congressman McCord, owner of the Portland Baseball club, and a stand-patter, was beaten by Wharton, insurgent, a Tacoma lawyer. In the third, or the Spokane district, LaFollette, an insurgent, cousin of the Wisconsin senator, was nominated.

The insurgent victory in the Republican state primary election has exceeded all expectations.

National interest in the Washington primary was whetted by the effort which President Taft made two weeks ago through Secretary Ballinger to concentrate the opposition to Mr. PoinDEXTER upon the regular candidate, James M. Ashton of Tacoma, and Thomas Burke of Seattle insisting on remaining in the race and dividing the regular vote.

The balloting shows that a concentration of the regulars would not have changed the result.

BLEASE WINS IN PRIMARY.

South Carolina Local Optionist Captures Nomination For Governor. Columbia, S. C., Sept. 14.—Coleman Blease, local optionist, has received the Democratic nomination, which is equivalent to an election, for governor of South Carolina.

Out of a total vote for governor of about 165,000, little more than 95,000 votes have been heard from, and of these probably 50,000 are for Blease.

Election Proclamation.

Austin, Tex., Sept. 14.—The formal election proclamation of the governor is being sent out over the state today. In addition to state and other officers the proclamation submits a constitutional amendment for the consideration of the people.

PRISCILLA CLUB.

Met Yesterday With Mrs. Allen Fanning on East Jones Street.

The Priscilla held its first meeting of the fall season yesterday with Mrs. Allen Fanning, on East Jones street. There was a good attendance of the members and all seemed pleased to be together again after the long summer vacation.

As this was the first meeting there was no set program, but the ladies spent a pleasant hour in embroidery after which the hostess served delicious ice cream and cake.

Dr. D. H. Waddle, specialist, eye, ear, nose and throat. Glasses fitted Opera House block.

DR. CRIPPEN TRIAL AGAIN

EXPERT SAYS SKILLED SURGEON CUT WOMAN'S BODY.

Dr. Crippen Cool and Collected. Ethel Leneve Wan and in Distress.

London, Sept. 14.—Testifying at the resumption today of the Dr. Crippen murder trial, Professor Augustus Pepper, a pathologist of the University of London, said his examination had convinced him that human parts found in the cellar of the Hill-Drop-Cricket home were severed by a hand skilled in surgery and directed by a mind that possessed a real knowledge of anatomy.

Evidence of the medical experts has been awaited with eagerness and the famous little court room in Bow street was crowded.

The prisoners in the dock presented contrasting appearances. Dr. Crippen who is charged as principal in the murder of his wife, Belle Elmore, the American actress, was seemingly cool and collected as ever. On the other hand, Ethel Leneve, accused as accessory after the fact, was weak and plainly in mental and physical distress.

Professor Pepper was the first witness called by the prosecution. He said that the hair discovered, included short strand of fair texture wrapped up in a handkerchief of the size commonly used by men. The witness as identified particularly a piece of flesh six by seven inches in size as coming from the abdominal wall and which bore a scar which, in his opinion, undoubtedly was left by a wound from an operation.

THE STATE SECRETARY.

L. A. Coulter of the Y. M. C. A. Will Be Here Soon.

The following letter to S. B. Perkins, president of the Y. M. C. A., explains itself:

Mr. S. B. Perkins, President Y. M. C. A., Greenville, Texas. Dear Mr. Perkins:—I am planning to come to Greenville on Tuesday, the 20th. Will hope to reach there about eleven o'clock in the morning. I hope we can have a thorough conference in the evening (in which not only all the members of the board are present but also some business men who are interested) taking up the whole problem confronting you and the Association. I could have gotten there this week, but judging from opinions expressed that a few days later than the 14th would be the better time. If there be something definitely interfering with the 20th, will you kindly write me at once?

Yours sincerely,

L. A. COULTER,

State Secretary.
